12th Annual Septemberfest

Due to the fact that we go to press a month before Septemberfest, some plans are not finalized. Watch local papers for further information.

COME ONE, COME ALL to the 12th Annual Septemberfest on September 9 (rain date September 16) from 11:00 A.M. to 6:00 P.M. in Old Town (Lake Street and Bloomingdale Rd.) The official opening ceremony will begin at 12 noon on the stage located on Franklin Street. Part of this ceremony will be the crowning of the Bloomingdale Septemberfest Queen.

Once again the annual end-of-the-summer celebration will include numerous booths sponsored by local organizations, food, games, entertainment and antiques. Crafters will be back again this year located on Third Street. (Applications for these craftsmen will be accepted only until August 21. Call Vi Morrisroe, Septemberfest Chairman at 980-7723 for details.)

New to Septemberfest this year will be Chuckles to Reign clown troupe. They will "work" the crowd, as well as having a booth to put clown makeup on the children.

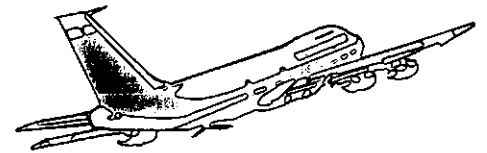

Some favorites are returning for the festivities: the Moonwalk for children, sponsored by Incarnation Church; the Dunk Tank sponsored by the Knights of Columbus of St. Isidore; a show by the Bloomingdale Park District gymnastic team "The Beamers." The Bloomingdale Public Library will be selling books and the Garden Club will have dried flowers for sale. In addition, the Park District Museum will be open featuring a model train exhibit.

Once again the Bloomingdale Women's Club will be sponsoring its 12th annual Festival of Arts featuring both fine arts and crafts in the Bloomingdale State Bank parking lot. (See separate article for details).

The stores located in Old Town will also be participating in the Septemberfest festivities. For a finalized schedule of events watch the local papers. Be sure to make plans to be a part of Septemberfest 1984. It promises to be another most enjoyable time.

PLANE NOISY

Have you noticed lately, more of your conversations interrupted, television programs drowned out, and sleep invaded by the sounds of planes roaring overhead?

Granted, summertime means open windows and time spent out-of-doors, so the noise from air traffic is bound to be more evident. However, the increased traffic and noise over Bloomingdale is due largely to some changes in routing for arrivals and departures at O'Hare Airport for nighttime hours.

From January 1 to April 30, 1984 the Federal Aviation Administration conducted a nighttime noise abatement test which routed all departing planes to the west and northwest during nighttime hours, that is, 10 P.M. to 7 A.M. Only after planes climb to 3500 ft. are they then turned into the direction of their destination. The same routing was implemented for arrivals during these hours. The reason for the re-routing was to move the noise away from heavily populated areas. In essence, this brings planes through Bloomingdale.

THE MAYOR'S DIRECT LINE

"Village Adopts $6.3 Million Budget"

The Village of Bloomingdale adopted its Fiscal Year 1984-85 Budget which provided forecasted total expenditures of $6,332,442.00 for all purposes. This amount is allocated as $4,400,759.00 for Corporate and $1,931,683.00 for Sewer and Water.

Included in the Budget are provisions for the hiring of two (2) new Police Officers and one (1) Community Service Officer. Eight Police Patrol cars are scheduled for replacement; as well as three (3) trucks for Public Works. Village service levels for such activities as street repairs, snow removal, and policing activities will be maintained or enhanced during this Budget year.

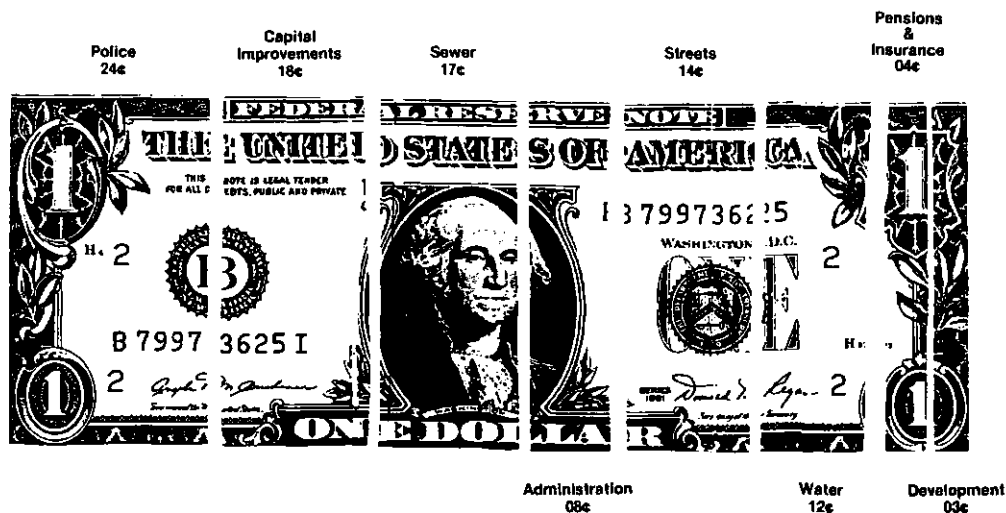

Capital Improvements total 18% of the Budget. Some of the major projects include a Computer System for Police, drainage improvements, tree planting, sidewalk replacements, Bloomingdale Road improvements, Engineering for Schick Road Improvements, reconstruction of several streets in Old Town, and general repairs and overlays for several streets in various parts of the Village. These Capital Improvement projects are funded primarily through Sales Tax receipts and reserve funds of the General Corporate fund.

The diagrams (right) illustrate the Village's major sources of revenues and the major expenditure categories. On the expenditure side, as in the past, police protection and major capital projects are given a very high priority. On the revenue side, the State Sales Tax and User Charges are the largest revenue producers. As Stratford Square matures, in addition to the increase in the development that surrounds it and other commercial growth; sales tax revenue will continue to grow which will allow the Village to operate at the same level while relying less upon property tax revenues. Property taxes presently make up only 11% of every dollar of Village revenue.

ITALIAN
 AMERICAN SPORTS
 HALL OF FAME
 ANNEXED TO VILLAGE

At its meeting of July 23, 1984 the Village Board passed an ordinance which annexed to the Village of Bloomingdale the property where the Italian American Sports Hall of Fame will be constructed. The property is located south of Lake Street at South Medinah Road and consists of approximately 18 acres.

Phase I of the project which is to be a museum, is expected to be completed by late 1985. Phase II and III which consist of an Athletic Center and Theatre are expected to be completed in 1986 and 1987 respectively. The Village welcomes a new neighbor to our community and wishes them the best of luck.

On May 31 the FAA tentatively approved Chicago's Environmental Impact Statement for the city's proposed 1984-85 Phase II O'Hare Airport Master Plan for the expansion of the airport.

The plans call for the extension of an east-west runway to accommodate cargo planes, which are louder than passenger planes, taking off at night. This runway will send planes directly over Bloomingdale. Other plans include extension of a north-west/southwest runway, construction of a new terminal and general aviation and cargo facilities.

The Bloomingdale Village Board, along with 14 other DuPage and Cook County communities, have authorized lawyers to file suit and seek other legal relief to prevent and mitigate the adverse effects stemming from the proposed expansion. All 14 communities are members of the Suburban O'Hare Commission and coordination and supervision of the law suit will be carried out through the Commission.

At this point the Noise Abatement Office is under the impression there is no noise problem in Bloomingdale as it has received so few complaint calls. In conjunction with the suit being filed, citizens are encouraged to call in complaints about excessive and/or continuous noise from planes overhead. The 24-hour hotline number is 686-2377.

Unless the Noise Abatement Office becomes aware of the problem in Bloomingdale, there is absolutely no doubt the situation will become much worse.

POST NO BILLS

The Bloomingdale Police Department would like to remind residents that there is an ordinance covering the posting of signs in the Village limits. Bills, political posters and any type of advertisements (including garage sale signs) may only be posted on private property with the owner's permission. Signs may not be posted on utility poles, parkways or any other public property. The residents' cooperation with this ordinance, #82-33 is greatly appreciated.

MOSQUITO SPRAYING

Some residents of the Village have expressed concern on the safety of the mosquito spraying program sponsored by the Village and Bloomingdale Township. The spraying is being performed by Clarke Outdoor Spraying Co., Inc. of Roselle who is under contract by the Village and Township. Clarke has been performing this work in the Village limits for more than ten (10) years.

The principal chemical used to abate the mosquitoes is Dursban. Dursban is a very strong pesticide, but not harmful to plants, animals, or humans at the level of strength it is applied in the Village. Extensive testing of the effect of the chemical on different plant and animal groups has been performed by the manufacturer, Dow Chemical U.S.A. of Midland, Michigan. These tests did not result in any injurious conditions to plants, animals or humans. Tests by the United States Public Health Service performed in 1966 through 1968 also demonstrated that applications of Dursban were not harmful to humans in any way.

If you have any further questions or concerns about Dursban, please call Larry Erickson of Clarke Company at 894-2000. Technical specifications for the pesticide are available at the Village Hall. Ask for Marty Bourke, Assistant Village Administrator.

MAINTENANCE CODE

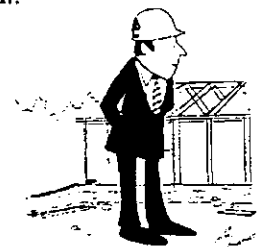

Recognizing the need for adequate minimum requirements for existing structures, residential and non-residential in the Village of Bloomingdale, the Village President and Board of Trustees adopted the 1981 BOCA Basic Property Maintenance Code on May 30, 1984.

The Code is intended to establish the minimum acceptable standards for the maintenance and repair of existing buildings, structures, premises and facilities to protect health, safety and general welfare.

The need for the Property Maintenance Code in our community has become increasingly important as our Village grows and gets older.

Copies of the new 1981 BOCA Basic Property Maintenance Code can be viewed at the Building and Zoning Department Village Hall Offices.

The new program will enable homeowners and apartment dwellers to request inspection by a Building Department Official of existing structures, residential and non-residential.

FIRST YEAR GREAT SUCCESS FOR BLOOMINGDALE CANCER SOCIETY

On Sunday, July 22, the atrium lobby of Indian Lakes Resort was transformed into an Italian piazza. The occasion was "Festa Al Gelato," a special ice cream festival sponsored by Indian Lakes to benefit the Bloomingdale Unit of the American Cancer Society.

Those in attendance were treated to the popular new Italian ice cream Gelato, cappuccino, espresso and soft drinks. Entertaining throughout the afternoon were pianist Vicki Heinkel and soloists Kathy Franz and Gail Rohmann, roaming accordionist Mike Visocky, and clowns Don and Gisela Bothwell, Gretchen Countryman and Vicki Kueker. These people donated their time and talents for the benefit.

A true connoisseur exhibits his approval.

Another special feature at the ice cream festival was portrait artist Joe Flynn who donated his portrait fees to the Bloomingdale Unit. According to Bloomingdale Unit chairman Pat DeMoon, the ice cream festival was a wonderfully successful event.

The Bloomingdale Unit of the American Cancer Society will end its fiscal year in mid-August. Dee Hanrahan, economic development chairperson of the unit, announced the financial goal of $11,600 for the Bloomingdale Unit has been met with projected funds not yet computed exceeding that total.

Steve Kostechka, assistant manager of Indian Lakes, Major Sam Tenuto and Pat DeMoon, Chairman of the Bloomingdale Unit obviously enjoying the festival.

Sincere appreciation is extended to the many volunteers, contributors, business operators and to the community as a whole, for their continued assistance toward making that goal a reality. Their support is providing the means for continuing programs, distribution of educational materials, giving assistance to local patients and their families, as well as providing funding for continued research.

Membership in the local chapter is always invited. Volunteers can be used in any area. If interested call the chapter office, 469-3011 or Dee, 351-1304.

SMURF

SMURF — Single Mothers United Raising Families is a group sponsored by the DuPage County Health Department. The group provides support for single mothers, development of new friendships, teaching of parenting skills, information of community resources and interaction between children of various ages.

The group is open to single mothers of any age and meets Monday nights in Wheaton or Tuesday nights in Addison. Call Ruth Todd or Jane Ebert at 682-7560 or Ann Mooney at 620-3325.

SMILES ALL 'ROUND

Jetty Jones says her family has always enjoyed clowning around, but now it seems she's "taking the show on the road." Jones has been the volunteer director at Marklund Home for the past five years. About four months ago she began the Marklund Children's Home Clown Club with some of the employees and volunteers from the Home.

The group has been entertaining all over the area, even though it is fairly new. They began by entertaining the youngsters at Marklund and took it from there. In the last few months the clowns have been at the Lions Club Half-a-thon, the Roselle Rose Parade, the Glendale Heights celebration and parade, the Hazelcrest 26-mile run, Bible schools and the DuPage County Convalescent Center. Any donations they receive go back to Marklund for the children.

These entertainers aren't just, pardon the expression, "clowning around". They have completed a three-month class under the direction of Norma Jean Hammond ("Lollipops" the clown) and magician Matthew Schaerer. Graduation for the 20 students was July 24.

The clown club has elected officers: co-presidents, Willa Brigham and Laura Kurtz; publicity, Martin and Margaret Kwitschau; secretary/treasurer, Julie Hartzler; costumes, makeup and props, Cindy Jones, Glenda Jones and Eileen Summer-ville. Jetty, herself, has left both the club and Marklund Home. As of August 1, she is off enjoying retirement in Michigan. All at Marklund will miss her, but because of her enthusiasm in establishing the clown club, she has left behind her an endless source of smiles.

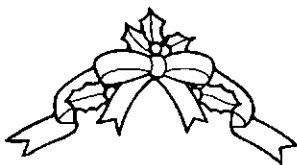

FESTIVAL OF ARTS

All are invited to attend the Bloomingdale Women's Club 12th annual Festival of Arts on September 9. Once again the Festival will be held in the Bloomingdale State Bank parking lot in conjunction with Septemberfest.

The medias to be displayed are needlecraft, sewing, wood, ceramics, painting, photography, glass, fiber, sculpture, multi-media and potpourri. As well as the crafts and fine arts on hand, B.W.C. will also sponsor a bake sale and toy chest raffle. There will be plenty of refreshments including Rosati's cheese pizza, brownies and pop.

All proceeds of the Festival will go to the Bloomingdale Police Department and the B.W.C. scholarship fund.

The Bloomingdale Women's Club will be sponsoring its first annual Christmas Tour of Homes on December 2. View five lovely area homes decorated by local florists. For information call 980-5078.

Bloomingdale Festival Queen Contest

The annual Bloomingdale Festival Queen Contest is once again being held in conjunction with the Septemberfest celebration on September 9. The queen and her court will be presented and awarded their gifts at the opening ceremonies on that day.

Any young lady between the ages of 16-21, who is a Bloomingdale resident is eligible to enter. Only the first 15 applicants will be accepted and the deadline for entry is September 1, 1984. The judging will be held September 5, 1984 at 7:00 P.M. at the Park District building. Among the judges will be leaders of the civic organizations within the community and those involved with Septemberfest.

The applicants will be judged on beauty, poise and their written response as to their feelings about Bloomingdale as their hometown and why they would like to be Festival Queen.

The ALMANAC has provided an entry blank for the contest. To obtain additional information call Vi Morrisroe at 980-7723.

QUEEN STEPS DOWN

Laura Hartsgrove, 1983 Septemberfest Queen, will be relinquishing her crown to a successor on September 9. Hartsgrove graduated from Lake Park High School in June after an exciting senior year in the drama department and on the speech team.

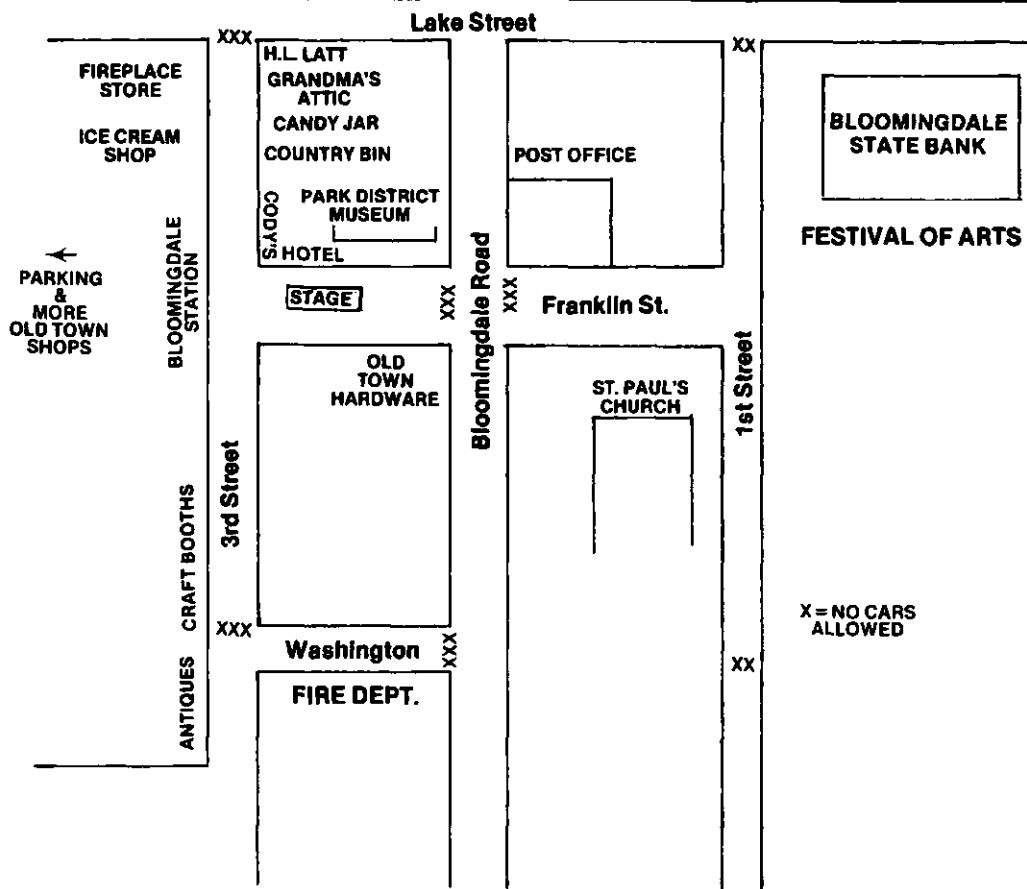

As Audrey, the female lead in "Little Shop of Horrors", Hartsgrove participated in regional, and state competition for group interpretation. Lake Park took first in regionals, second in sectionals and tenth in state for that play. Laura won the "Best Actress" award in the school's version of the Academy Awards because of her performance as Audrey. She was also a member of the speech team which this year won the Upstate Eight Championship.

During her reign Hartsgrove modeled in the Women's Club fashion show and was recently part of the Old Town grand opening ceremonies. The prizes she won as queen last year included many mementos of her title, one of which is the charm bracelet with charms from the various organizations involved with Septemberfest. She also received an 11 x 14 portrait from Art Craft Photographers which is currently hanging in the Village Hall.

Laura will attend Columbia College in the Fall majoring in theatre. She says her real dream is to become an actress, but being realistic she will study to be a drama teacher. Whichever her choice we wish her the best of luck.

“CHECK THIS OUT”

Bookworms, make room. The shutterbugs have arrived at Bloomingdale Public Library. Now anyone 14 years of age or older with a valid Bloomingdale Library card may borrow an instand Polaroid Sun Camera for up to 7 days. Through the library's "Check This Out" program, you can take photos of your weekend away from home or your day at the beach. When friends come from out of town, you can send them home with a handful of memories. You can document your hobbies or illustrate school projects. The cameras may be borrowed free of charge. Patrons must supply their own film.

Don't forget we also have 8mm and 16mm projectors as well as a film-strip/slide projector, cassette player, record player, and portable screen that patrons 18 years of age or older with a valid Bloomingdale library card may also borrow. Want more details? Check these out the next time you're at the library or reserve them by phone - 529-3120.

TRAIN EXHIBIT AT PARK MUSEUM

The Bloomingdale Park District Museum will be featuring an exhibit of model trains during the month of September at 108 S. Bloomingdale Road beginning September 1.

A variety of model trains, both old and new, will be exhibited along with actual running train layouts, train memorabilia, and miniature scenic dioramas. Many of our model trains are being generously loaned to the Museum by local collectors, including a collection owned by Mr. Tom Capek of Bloomingdale, whose trains were exhibited at the Bloomingdale Library last year.

The Museum will also be open for Septemberfest on Sunday, September 9th from 11:00 to 6:00 pm. Make sure you stop by for a visit during Bloomingdale's Annual event!

The Museum is free and open to the public on Tues./Thurs. from 3-6 and Sat. 10-2. For further information or for group arrangements, please call the Park office at 529-3650.

LIBRARY FINES
INCREASE

Effective September 1, the Bloomingdale Public Library will increase its fines from 5¢ to 10¢ per day on overdue books, magazines, records, cassettes, and other materials. Fines on framed art prints and audio visual equipment will increase from $1.00 to $2.00 per day. The cost to replace a lost library card will go from 50¢ to $1.00. These increases were approved by the Library Board of Directors at their regular July meeting.

POPS CONCERT

As usual the "Chuting Stars" were breathtaking. July 4 - Circle Park.

The Fall brochure will be mailed to your home sometime during the week of August 20th. This will contain all the information about Fall programming. Registration for preschool will be held September 6, 7-8 P.M. with classes starting the week of September 17. Registration for all other programs, except where otherwise noted in the brochure, will be held September 8, 10-12 noon. Classes begin the week of September 17. Registration takes place at the Park District recreation center, 172 S. Circle. Call the office, 529-3650 for more information.

Marklund Home is proud to sponsor the John Wilson Orchestra and Chorus in a Pops Concert at 7:30 P.M. Saturday, August 11 at the DuPage County Complex at Manchester and County Farm Roads.

The orchestra will be playing show tunes from popular musicals, such as, Oklahoma, My Fair Lady, The Wiz, Annie and Porgy and Bess. An added attraction of the evening will be the guest soloists Steve Musto, Sandy Rios and Steve Musto, Jr. The Mustos are husband and son of Barbara Musto, director of development at Marklund, and have enchanted audiences before with their vocal talents.

"Pop Tarts" Mike DiBenedetto, Peter DiBenedetto and Matt Davis doing a little entertaining of their own. July 4 - Circle Park.

The Park District would like the residents to know the the PARK DISTRICT POLICE are on duty patrolling parks and facilities. They will be enforcing the ordinances of the Park District only. Abuse of these ordinances is subject to fine. Some of the ordinances are:

Tickets are $5 and may be purchased at Marklund Home or at Marklund's Resale Shop, 193 E. Lake Street. For more information call the Home, 529-2871.

- No animals allowed in the parks
- No alcoholic beverages in parks
- No parking in non-parking areas
- Non-authorized vehicles are not allowed in parks

Looking ahead - Marklund Home is planning a very special 30th Anniversary Celebration. It will take place on November 2, 1984 at Indian Lakes in the style of a country/western roundup. One of the very special guests to be in attendance is Dale Evans. More details next issue.

CASSETTE COLLECTION

If you would like further information on these or other Park District ordinances being enforced by the Park District Police, stop by the Park District office and pick up a copy of Ordinance 74-1.

The pool closes Sunday, August 26. The Park District hopes everyone has had an enjoyable summer and looks forward to seeing you this Fall.

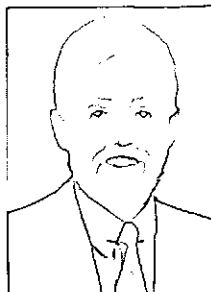

Are you embarking on a self-improvement program and looking for help? Try checking out the cassette collection at the Bloomingdale Public Library. Jess Laris' I Ain't Much Baby, But I'm All I've Got, Born To Win by James Muriel, and I'm OK — You're OK by Thomas Harris are all popular titles. If you want to improve your business skills, perhaps as easily as listening to a tape as you commute to work, try the following cassettes by Paul Meyer: How To Get More Sales Interviews, Qualities of a Successful Salesman, Self-Motivation for Winners, and How to Close a Sale. Other titles on related subjects are Realize Your Potential by Robert McKain, and Power With People by James Van Fleet. DuJardin School aid, MURIEL SCHNEIDER, Central School library clerk RITA HUMMEL and Westfield math teacher PEG MULDOON have something in common other than working in District 13. The three ladies are members of the Elk Grove area band which has been playing some summer concerts recently. The band is a fun venture and is largely made up of people who played instruments years ago in school and haven't had much opportunity since. Auditions aren't necessary. Call Muriel at 894-2604 for more information.

After 21 years of teaching GUY CARDARELLI has gone from the classroom to the darkroom. He had worked as a freelance photographer for the last eight years in addition to teaching full-time at Proviso East High School. Recently Cardarelli opened a fully equipped studio at 110 W. Kinzie in Chicago. He handles commercial and industrial photography, as well as corporate portraits. But, he says, his favorite is still "people pictures" models, entertainers and family portraits. He also enjoys shooting out-of-doors in addition to the studio setting. He has been preparing for the change in career for some time. His training includes the Masters Photographic Workshop in Maine. Cardarelli can be reached at 645-1353 or 980-1316.

REGINALD P. GIBSON was recently appointed as the associate administrator of St. Anne's Hospital in Chicago. He has served as an administrator, associate administrator, and as assistant administrator in Air Force hospitals in the U.S., as well as overseas. Most recently Gibson was the chief of the Air Force health care education, civilian institutions division.

MICHAEL BANSHISH, a recent graduate of Driscoll Catholic High School, has been selected for the James Millikin Scholarship honors program at Millikin University in Decatur. He was selected for the four-year program on the basis of academic achievement, national test scores, personal interviews and recommendations by high school faculty. At Driscoll Bانشish was active in a variety of musical activities, a member of the National Honor Society and was active in drama and the liturgy group.

Fifteen-year old KATHY CHANG recently won third place junior artist, level five in the fourth annual International Piano Competition, sponsored by the Young Keyboard Artists Association in Grand Rapids, MI. Born in Taiwan, Chang started piano lessons at the age of four. She came to the U.S. with her parents in 1976 and currently attends Medinah Christian School. She has been a soloist with the DuPage Symphony Orchestra and the Suburban Youth Symphony Orchestra. Last year she played at the Chicago Taiwanese Music Festival. The young musician, who also studies violin, has won awards in 40 music contests.

SIDEWALK REPAIR PROGRAM

As a part of the budget process, the Village Board has allocated $6,000.00 this year for a 50-50 cost sharing program for the replacement of deteriorated public sidewalks. Following are the guidelines for the program:

1. Private walks and drive aprons are not eligible for cost sharing.
2. Sections of public walk which have settled due to an underground utility will be repaired at Village expense.
3. For corner lots, the crosswalk portions and the side-yard walks will be repaired at Village expense.
4. Residents are asked to telephone the Public Works Department at 893-7000 Ext. 33 with their request, specifying the location of the walk needing replacement.
5. The Village staff will inspect the walk and will inform the resident as to the status.
6. Depending on the volume of requests, the Village may let a contract for the work, during this coming fall.
7. Preliminary cost estimates are $1.60 for each square foot at the 50% level; with contractor's bid prices to govern.
8. Further information can be obtained from the Public Works Department at the Village Hall.

NEW BUSINESS IN BLOOMINGDALE

ANOTHER ERA, LTD. - John and Bobbi Kielhofer opened their fine antiques and gifts shop in Old Town's Mansion, Unit #1 at 108 S. Third Street. Like many of Old Town's businesses, the idea for opening a store began with the couple's hobby - in this case, collecting antiques for friends.

Because of their experience in successfully finding unusual pieces the Kielhofers offer a Finder Service. Just bring in a photo of the piece of furniture or whatever you are trying to match. Chances are John or Bobbi will be able to locate just what you have been looking for. They are also able to help you repair or refinish your treasured heirlooms.

During our visit, several unusual pieces of handcarved solid wood furnishing were on display. These pieces were selected from estate sales and other collections of fine antiques. If you are a collector of antiques, or simply enjoy beautiful furniture, you will find Another Era, Ltd. the right era for you.

DEPARTMENT OF INTERIORS, LTD. - Audrey Lyle and Jo Ann Miller also selected the Mansion as the home for their first Bloomingdale business. Each lady brings eight years of furniture showroom or interior design experience with her. As interior decorators, their goal is to make your home an extension of your wants, lifestyle and personality.

No job is too large or too small; they can design a single room or an entire home. For decorating around current furniture, they can be a real help. Their experience has taught them to develop plans which make very effective use of existing furniture while acquiring the new look desired.

Although they charge a fee for their work, Lyle and Miller maintain many clients have saved more money than the price of their fee by preventing costly mistakes in matching colors in furniture, carpeting, paint and wallpaper. If you are thinking about redecorating your home or office, the professionals at the Department of Interiors, Ltd. are ready to help.

ANCHOR ORGANIZATION FOR HEALTH MAINTENANCE - This Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center subsidiary opened April 2, 1984 at 201 East Army Trail Road, Suite 306. Many companies throughout the Chicago area who employ 25 or more employees offer their employees Health Maintenance Organization (H.M.O.) medical plans. In addition, a supplemental health plan for Medicare beneficiaries is available. Rapid population growth in the Bloomingdale area created a need to open an office here. The medical facility is staffed by doctors who specialize in internal medicine, pediatrics, obstetrics/gynecology and family practice.

Although appointments are not required, you are encouraged to call before coming in. The number is 893-6900. Current office hours are: Monday and Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.; Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; Saturday, 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Residents are welcome to attend the facility's open house beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, August 22.

BOUCHARD ART GALLERY - Cathy Bouchard selected the House of Six Shops, lower level, at 140 W. Lake Street as home for her new art gallery. Bouchard, as you may recall from an earlier feature in the Almanac, is an internationally known artist, as well as being a three-year resident.

The gallery displays her works in prints, limited editions and original art. Cathy's talents include more than painting as she has also coordinated interior designs for corporate and home use. Sections of the gallery are set aside to illustrate how art can become an integral part of designing a comfortable and beautiful room setting.

This fall Bouchard will expand her horizons by designing a new line of apparel, purses and scarves. She will also design home furnishings which will include sheets, comforters and towels.

The Bouchard Art Gallery special grand opening will be held September 22 and 23. Be sure to register for the grand prize giveaway of one of Cathy's original works of art.

JEANNINE'S - This shop, located at 106 S. Third Street, Unit #2, brings to Old Town a women's fine apparel specialty store. Co-owners Jeannine Anders and Charlotte Pieper are ready to help you coordinate a beautiful wardrobe of sweaters, blouses, sportswear and dresses in sizes 4 to 16.

Jeannine uses her 27 years of experience in selecting merchandise from quality manufacturers, such as, Schroeder Sport, David Brooks, Robert Scott and Aileen Sportware. For your convenience, a special monogramming and a gift-wrapping service are available.

This fall a fine line of women's handbags and handmade semi-precious stone jewelry from the Girraw collection will be added to the assortment of accessories. A visit to Jeanine's will allow you to find the total look in fine apparel.

ON THE RIGHT TRACK - From a location standpoint, this business has selected one of the most unique. Kathie and Hank Domenico are using the railroad car located behind H.L. Latt as the home for their first business. Their actual address is 108 W. Lake Street.

Kathie uses her degree in art to guide her eye in selecting the merchandise for the gallery of handmade gifts. Her artistic talent is also evident in the displays of the merchandise. There is a charming feel to the interior of the shop.

No matter what your decorating theme might be in your home or office, the assortments of dolls, pottery, windchimes, table centerpieces, wall decor etc. is certain to provide you with an appropriate accessory.

The Domenicos are anxious to put you On The Right Track for finding both unusual and functional merchandise to decorate your home or office.

FIRESIDE CRAFTS - For those who enjoy using needles and thread, and for those who want to learn, Fireside Crafts at 159 W. Lake Street, is a true delight. Owners Pat Diebold and Margo Gray offer one of Bloomington's widest assortments of needlecraft, shadow quilting, cross stitch fabric and candlewicking kits, as well as all the supplies and patterns for other needs.

They met eight years ago during a vacation in Yellowstone National Park. Each saw what craft the other was doing and through further conversations realized they lived near each other. As the years progressed, so did their friendship and their interest in crafting.

As a result of their experience they can explain how to make any kit sold in their shop. Pat and Margo also offer classes to senior citizens, youth groups and any interested persons.

Every month special promotions will be run. In September all of their Christmas craft kits will be on sale. Fireside Crafts wants to help you make your seasons special.

Plans are in the works for a tennis tournament at Indian Lakes and Nordic Hills Resorts to benefit the Bloomington and Itasca units of the American Cancer Society. The tentative date is set for September 30.

"BECAUSE WE CARE"

- About our families
- About the community
- About each other
- About You!

Sorry, not for me

Not enough time We can use the time you have, no amount is too small.

I work Many of our members do. Our meetings are at night.

Kids too small Do you know that we have a babysitting co-op?

I don't know anyone Bring a friend with you, or make one at the meeting.

We are an organization of local women who work for our community.

Do we give? Yes, but we also get back in full through friendship, personal growth and the satisfaction of seeing our combined efforts benefit others.

Do we have fun? Yes! It's not all hard work. We have many social activities, including bowling, bridge and couple's activities.

Who belongs to BWC? That's easy, women - homemakers, career women, married, single, divorced, young and aging gracefully. You have seen us at the fashion show, festival of arts and Christmas auction. Look for us wearing our BWC buttons. Stop and say hello and we'll be glad to tell you more.

We are changing! We are a club for everyone!

Have we convinced you? Give us a try, you might find more than you expect. See you at our first meeting, a Get-Acquainted Night, Thursday, September 6 at the Village Hall, 7:30 P.M. Further meetings will be held the second Thursday of the month at the Bloomington Public Library.

THE VILLAGE BAND???

The Bloomingdale Women's Club is in the process of researching the possibilities of forming a Village band to present summer concerts. At this time they have promises of leadership and practice facilities. Right now they need to know how many adult musicians are interested. The Bloomingdale Women's Club asks you to spread the word to all neighboring communities. Even if you don't play an instrument, they would appreciate a response to the questionnaire below. For further information please call 980-9368 or 893-2374.

“WHAT DO YOU THINK?”

Is Glen Ellyn Road between Army Trail Road and Lake Street considered two or four lanes. Many times I have been crowded by cars who choose to disregard the speed limit.

Kathie Knable
192 Kingston

We respect the fact that every homeowner has different priorities concerning time, money etc., but we do feel angry and ashamed as we drive around Suncrest area and see some residences resembling a junk yard and vacant lots being used as dump sights. Can nothing be done to disallow such clutter and thus improve Bloomingdale's beauty?

Name withheld by request

I think that the light at the intersection of Schick Rd. and Bloomingdale Rd. needs to have a left-turn arrow installed. I have seen many cars involved in "near misses" while turning left. I think this problem should be looked into before a "near miss" becomes a serious accident.

Name withheld by request

This stretch of Glen Ellyn is considered a two-laned roadway, with one lane in each direction. In some locations, however, the road is wider to accommodate some turning movements. This wider stretch of roadway is not a passing lane. We will apply more traffic enforcement in the area you mention because of your concern and because of the predominantly residential nature of the surrounding area. Thank you for bringing this to our attention.

Gary J. Schira
Chief of Police

The Police Department, as well as the Building Department, have looked into your concerns. With our recently enacted Property Maintenance Code (which was adopted recently to address these types of concerns) we can address these aesthetically displeasing and possibly hazardous situations. Homeowners in violation will be required to comply with our Code, or be given a citation for their non-compliance.

Gary J. Schira
Chief of Police

When the traffic signals were installed at Bloomingdale and Schick, the County Highway Department did traffic counts to determine whether demands were sufficient to warrant left-turn arrows. At that time they were not. We will, however, ask the County to review this based on current traffic.
