Ice and Snow - Take It Slow

No doubt, this winter weather has already caused drivers much difficulty getting around. The "Ice and Snow - Take it Slow" winter campaign launched in December jointly by the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT), Illinois Tollway, and the Illinois State Police (ISP) was aptly named. For everyone's safety, motorists are reminded to please stay focused on the road, and to adhere to the following safety tips.

- Don't crowd the plow - a snow plow operator's field of vision is restricted. You may see them, but they may not see you.
  - Allow extra time for travel during the winter months.
  - Watch out for black ice on roads that appear clear but can be treacherous. Take it slow when approaching intersections, off-ramps, bridges and
- Always keep your gas tank at least two-thirds full to help prevent the vehicle's fuel line from freezing.
  - Do not travel during bad weather unless absolutely necessary - if you do have to make a trip, check the forecast and make sure someone is aware of your travel route.
  - Always carry an emergency car care kit that contains jumper cables, flares or reflectors, windshield washer fluid, a small shady areas, which are all prone to black ice.

ice scraper, traction material, blankets, non-perishable food and a first aid kit.

- Carry a cell phone and dial *999 for roadway assistance.
- Always wear a safety belt.

Motorists are urged to check travel conditions before any trip. You can get road condition information by calling 1-800-452-IDOT (4368), Illinois Tollway information by calling 1-800-TOLL-FYI or online at Getting Around Illinois and click on the "winter road conditions" icon.

Meijer's donated gift cards for the families and the Lions were off to make their deliveries. In addition, the Lions donated $500 each to the Bloomingdale Food Pantry and Family Shelter Service for victims of domestic violence.

Stay in Touch

Consider signing up for the Village's E-News, which would be delivered weekly to your email address.

This is a good way to keep up with timely information on news, services and events in and around town. And in the case of an unusual event, such as the snow, ice and frigid temperatures caused by our polar vortex experience in early January, the Village is able to get out critical information to all subscribers as it becomes available.

Go to www.villageofbloomington.org and sign up for the E-news on the homepage on the bottom half of the right hand side. It's easy and free!

A Message from Mayor Franco

Lake Street (Route 20) has been Bloomingdale's main thoroughfare almost since the village was founded back in 1833. From dirt to plank to paved, just as the road evolved, so also did the development flanking it. Right now, however, the gateway to Bloomingdale from Lake Street does not reflect the vibrant, economically sound, aesthetically pleasing community that is the Village of Bloomingdale. Looking forward, I see an opportunity for a rebirth and redevelopment, re-establishing Lake Street and Old Town as a center of commerce and community activity.

We have started this process in earnest and it is my hope that 2014 will bring forth a plan to begin this Lake Street redevelopment. The Village has laid the foundation to improve our economic development with zoning ordinance changes that our Board recently approved to be more "business friendly" and to encourage business retention and property acquisition. Our next step is to adapt to a new business and real estate climate to leverage the benefits that our Lake Street corridor has to offer.

Whereas in the past developers were seeking out municipalities, now there is often a need for municipalities to be more aggressive in directly soliciting developers for problematic development areas. I believe it is time for creative solutions to market and "kick-start" different types of development in our Village. We are currently performing an analysis to give the Village Board a range of options for economic development in general and to encourage new business in our proposed redevelopment sites. The Village will see a positive economic benefit by being pro-active in providing assistance to developers and helping owners market their properties better.

The Board, along with staff, is investigating the following options: a traditional process of hiring an economic development coordinator to lay out a vision and to take a leadership role in the process and, alternatively, to have consultants advise us in developing an immediate action plan to address the vacant storefronts between Euclid/Lakeview and Circle Drives. Both proposals will address our immediate needs while helping us to create a continuing economic development program on a long term basis as we look to the future.

We will keep you informed of progress and choices along the way through local papers, the E-News and the Almanac. I am excited to be near the brink of a new direction and vision for economic development in Bloomingdale.

Did anyone notice that it has snowed recently? I'd like to publicly recognize all the Village Services personnel involved in our snow & ice control. Many of them spent a good part of their Christmas, and especially New Year, working to keep up with the storms and freezing temps. Although their task was difficult and challenging, motorists could still tell when they were driving on Bloomingdale streets. Thanks also to the Police Department personnel who were kept busy with stranded cars and assisting motorists in distress as the snow and ice complicated traffic and safety. To all of those employees, I say "Thank you for continuing to do an excellent job, not only for our residents, but also for those who travel through Bloomingdale. I truly appreciate your efforts."

In closing, I want to wish all of you my very best in the New Year, as well as a happy, healthy and prosperous 2014!

Mayor Franco

Indian Lakes Open Space Ad Hoc Committee

The Village of Bloomingdale has established an Ad Hoc Advisory Committee to guide the planning endeavor for the Indian Lakes Open Space area. In helping to select the preferred design concept for stormwater storage on the site, the committee will weigh in with their preference for storage, either in open water ponds, or in the context of an "emergent plant" environment involving a combination of wetlands and ponds.

In addition, the committee will provide oversight and feedback for more detailed planning of site topography, and specific design elements for open space amenities, such as walking paths, woodland areas, native wildflower plantings, benches and footbridges.

Appointed to the committee by Mayor Franco Coladipietro were the following residents, who represent various areas of the Village: Karen Blake, Susan Culhane, Ed Hagedorn, Ben Hoyle, Len Jaster, Kathy Maykut, Fred Nazur, Buzz Puccio, S. Joseph Raso, Rich Troesken and Conservation Foundation member Janice Roehll.

Others also serving on the committee are Village Trustees Michael Hovde, Jr. and Judi Von Huben, as well as Director of Planning for the Forest Preserve District Andrea Hoyt, an ex officio member.

The group met for the first time on January 30. We will document the committee's progress in upcoming issues of the Almanac and through the Village's E-news.

The Village's water source comes from Lake Michigan through the City of Chicago and the DuPage Water Commission (DWC). The City of Chicago adopted a multi-year water rate increase plan for the purchase of Lake Michigan water which was assessed to the DWC and subsequently passed through to the Village. The Village cannot absorb these pass-through rate increases. As a result, a rate increase of 70¢ per thousand gallons of water used went into effect on January 1, 2014. The new rate will be reflected on Village utility bills issued in February 2014.

The average residential bill is projected to increase $8.40, or approximately 6%. Details of the new water and sewer rates are available on the back of your water bill. Conserving water will help to reduce your water bill, and is also good for the environment. For some specific water conservation suggestions.

Fix leaks – Probably the single greatest water waster is a leaky toilet. A simple worn-out flapper valve could waste a gallon of water every ten minutes. This is almost 150 gallons of water wasted each day. Fixing the leaky toilet could reduce your water bill by $88.

Install water flow restrictors – While a long, hot shower might feel good in the winter months, it's an easy way to use an extra 500 gallons of water a month. Install water flow restrictors on your shower heads and possibly reduce your water bill by $10.

Lawn watering – A deep, green lawn really looks great, but all that watering might be costing you an extra $20 each water bill. When you step on your grass, if it springs back up, it's healthy and might not need as much water. Cut back on the unnecessary watering and reduce your water bill.

Budget Presentation Honored

The Village of Bloomingdale is very proud to announce the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) presented the village with the Distinguished Budget Presentation Award for its FY14 Budget. This was the first year that the Village submitted its budget to the GFOA for consideration and we are very pleased to have earned the award.

The award is a significant achievement because it reflects the commitment of the governing body and staff to meet the highest principles of governmental budgeting. This means the budget has to satisfy nationally recognized guidelines to assess how well it serves as: a policy document; a financial plan; an operations guide; and a communications device.

The Budget Team - Management and Supervisors from Administration, Finance, Police, Village Services, including Streets, Forestry, Engineering, Building & Zoning, Utilities and Water Reclamation.

A Certificate of Recognition was also presented to Finance Director/Village Treasurer Gary L. Szott, and all Department Directors and Management staff primarily involved in the budget process. Thank you and congratulations to everyone involved for their valuable contributions which led to the receipt of this prestigious award.

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)

Assistance is available for low-income households to help offset the rising cost of home energy through direct financial assistance, energy counseling, outreach and education. An overdue bill or disconnect notice is not required to receive LIHEAP assistance. Emergency assistance is available to eligible households whose utility service has been disconnected and for homeowners whose furnace is non-operational or determined unsafe to operate.

To be eligible, a client's total gross household income may not exceed 150% of poverty. Client must be customer of record with utility company, and submit complete documentation of income and proof of Social Security Number, utility bills and lease.

Applications are taken on an ongoing basis at the Bloomingdale Township General Assistance Office. If you wish to determine your eligibility for assistance you may do so by calling 630-529-9993 to make an appointment with a General Assistance case worker.

Surface Transportation Program Funding

Each year, the federal Surface Transportation Program (STP) provides state and local governments with funds that may be used for maintaining and improving their urban transportation networks. These funds are distributed locally to the DuPage Mayors and Managers Conference (DMMC) who in turn distribute them to municipalities. In order to receive funding, a municipality must apply for the funds with a specific project and meet certain criteria.

Highway funds are used for projects that involve resurfacing or rebuilding roadways; Transportation Control Measure (TCM) funds are used for projects that decrease congestion and vehicle emissions.

This year, DMMC received 29 Highway project applications totaling $16,860,960 and 7 TCM project applications totaling $5,303,627.

Bloomingdale's highway projects awarded funding are the Springfield Drive Resurfacing project from Schick Road to Lake Street in the amount of $374,421 and the Butterfield Drive Resurfacing project from Springfield Drive to Army Trail Road in the amount of $296,423.

Bloomingdale's TCM projects awarded funding are the Springfield Drive Trail Extension from Lawrence Avenue to Lake Street in the amount of $58,253 and the Covington Drive Sidewalk Replacement from Schick Road to Army Trail Road in the amount of $171,175.

The federal funding awarded will cover only a part of each project. The projects funded this year each have their own scheduled start date in the Spring of 2016, 2017, or 2018.

Cross Connection Control Regulations & Survey

Reminder - New Driving Law Bans Hand-Held Cell Phones

As of January 1, 2014, Illinois joined 11 other states and the District of Columbia in banning the use of hand-held devices while driving. The operation of a motor vehicle is prohibited on any Illinois road while using a mobile phone or other electronic communication device, with exceptions for hands-free devices. These include those with headsets that can initiate a call using a single button or a voice command. Also excepted are emergency responders during the course of performing their duties.

In addition, penalties have increased when the use of an electronic device while driving causes an accident. If the accident causes great bodily harm, the driver can be sentenced to up to 1 year in prison, and a fatal accident can result in a prison sentence of 1 - 3 years. Previously, the law only allowed these drivers to be charged with traffic violations.

According to the U.S. Department of Transportation, drivers using hand-held devices are four times more likely to get into an accident causing injuries, and distracted driving caused 387,000 injuries and more than 3,000 fatalities across the country in 2011.

The Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) and the Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH) are responsible for ensuring that cross-connections do not occur through the enforcement of cross-connection control regulations.

A cross-connection is any physical connection that allows a potable, or safe water source such as the Village drinking water system and a non-potable, or contaminated source, the ability to come into contact with one another. A cross-connection between potable water sources and non-potable sources may cause contamination of plumbing systems potentially risking the health of consumers.

Examples of potential cross connection sources include: water from a private source such as a well, water of unknown or questionable safety, steam, gas or chemical systems, or any condition whereby the sources could flow from one system to the other, the direction of flow depending on the difference in pressure between the systems. To protect the integrity of the Village's drinking water system, in the interest of the public health safety and welfare, the IEPA requires the Village to survey water customers as part of a Cross-Connection Control Program.

Please visit www.villageofbloomington.org/CCCSurvey and complete the required survey by the July 1, 2014 deadline. Please note that this survey requires your Village water account number and manufacturer's information of any existing cross-connection control devices at the location so please have this information available before you begin the survey. If you have any questions please contact Water Production Supervisor, Grant Sharp at 630-671-5851.

CodeRED Emergency Notification

The Village of Bloomingdale has instituted the CodeRED Emergency Notification System - an ultra high-speed telephone communication service for emergency notifications.

CodeRED allows us to telephone either the whole Village, or targeted areas of the Village in case of an emergency situation that requires immediate action (such as a water boil water notice, gas leak, missing child, etc.). The system is capable of dialing 50,000 phone numbers per hour. The recorded message will be delivered to a live person or to an answering machine, making three attempts to connect to the home telephone first, and then to the registered cell number.

Bloomington residences listed in the white pages are included in the existing CodeRED database. If you are a resident with a non-published or unlisted phone number, or if you would like your cell phone added as a back-up notification, please check out the homepage on our website www.villageofbloomington.org or call the non-emergency police number at 630-529-9868.

Community to Vote On Proposed Aquatic Facility

The Lake Park High School Board of Education voted 7-0 to adopt referendum resolutions for the March 18, 2014 election. The official ballot will include two questions about the construction and operational costs for the only publicly-funded indoor aquatic facility in the area. Both questions must successfully pass to proceed with construction.

The proposed aquatic facility would add approximately 23,500 square feet at the Lake Park East Campus and benefit community residents through a collaborative agreement with local park districts, students in physical education classes, as well as Lake Park athletic and activity programs.

Construction highlights would include an eight-lane, 25-yard by 59-foot competition pool with diving well, a therapeutic warming pool, seating capacity for 330 people, locker rooms, offices and meeting space. Additional family friendly amenities have been added to accommodate community usage for activities such as swim lessons and water aerobics.

$600,000 in fund balances will be allocated to this project, estimated at a construction cost of $9.1 million. The remaining $8.5 million construction cost and $390,000 annual operational cost requires two referendum questions in the March 18, 2014 election – both ballot questions must pass to proceed. The approximate financial impact to the owner of a $200,000 home equals $26 annually or roughly $2 per month; and $38 annually or just over $3 per month for a $300,000 homeowner.

Learn more at a community open house on Tuesday, February 18 at 7 p.m. in the East Campus student cafeteria or at: www.lphs.org.

Around & About Town

Brrrr! When Temperatures Fall Below Zero

- If you have pipes that are vulnerable to freezing, allow a small trickle of water to run overnight to keep pipes from freezing. The cost of the extra water is low compared to the cost to repair a broken pipe.
- Open cabinet doors to expose pipes to warmer room temperatures to help keep them from freezing.

If your pipes freeze:

- Shut off the water immediately. Don't attempt to thaw frozen pipes unless the water is shut off. Freezing can often cause unseen cracks in pipes joints.
- Apply heat to the frozen pipe by warming the air around it, or by applying heat directly to a pipe. You can use a hair dryer, space heater, or hot water. Be sure not to leave space heaters unattended and avoid the use of kerosene heaters or open flames.
- Once the pipes have thawed, turn the water back on slowly and check for cracks and leaks.

When you are away:

- Have a friend, relative or neighbor regularly check your property to insure the heat is working and the pipes have not frozen.
- Also, a freeze alarm can be purchased for less than $100 and will call a user-selected phone number if the inside temperature drops below 45 degrees.

National Burn Awareness Week is February 2-8

General First Aid for Burns and Scalds

- Treat a burn right away by putting it in cool water. Cool the burn for three to five minutes.
- Cover burn with a clean, dry cloth. Do not apply creams, ointments, sprays or other home remedies.
- Remove all clothing, diapers, jewelry and metal from the burned area. These can hide underlying burns and retain heat, which can increase skin damage.
- If the burn is bigger than your fist or if you have any questions about how to treat it, seek medical attention right away.
- See your doctor as soon as possible if the burn does not heal in two to three days.

Firefighters Recommend Removing Holiday Decorations Promptly to Reduce Fire Risks

When most people think about the holidays, things like decorations, candles, delicious treats and ornamented trees are what come to mind. What few consider is the fact that these fun-filled winter months are the leading time for home fires according to the Bloomington Fire Protection District and the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA).

Frequently, people choose to keep Christmas trees up for a few weeks after the holiday. NFPA research shows that nearly 40 percent of homes fires that began with Christmas trees occurred following the holidays.

"The longer they are in the home, the more dangerous they become. The continued use of seasonal lighting and dried-out trees can pose significant fire hazards in and outside the home," said Lorraine Carli, vice president of Outreach and Advocacy for NFPA. "Proper disposal of the tree from your home will minimize the risk and will keep the holiday a joyful one."

Although these tree fires are not common, when they do occur, they are more likely to be fatal. On average, one of every 40 reported home structure Christmas tree fires resulted in a death compared to an average of one death per 142 total reported home structure fires.

When it's time to dispose of the tree, utilize a recycling program. Do not leave them in the home, garage, or placed outside. For unplugging the electric decorations, use the gripping area provided on the plugs. Never pull the cord to unplug a device from electrical outlets. Doing so can harm the cord's wire and insulation, which can lead to an electrical fire or shock. To reduce the risk of holiday tree and light fires and to keep decorations in good condition for next year, you should also follow these suggestions:

- As you're putting away electrical light strings, take time to inspect each for damage. Throw out light sets if they have loose connections, broken sockets or cracked or bare wires.
- Do not place a damaged set of lights back into the storage box for next year's use.
- Wrap each set of lights and put them in individual plastic bags, or wrap the lights around a piece of cardboard.
- Store electrical decorations in a dry place where they cannot be damaged by water or dampness. Also, keep them away from children and pets.

For more preventative steps to take and simple rules to follow in order to prevent home fires during the holidays and beyond, contact Battalion Chief Richard Kurka at the Bloomington Fire Protection District 630-894-9080.
